

Rye Arts Center to offer summer programs

Once again, the RAC will offer its popular Creative Arts Program for children ages 4-12 where students can get a well-rounded, hands-on arts experience with a little bit of art history thrown in. A focus on art movements and culture are incorporated into classes such as: drawing, painting, mixed media, creative movement, storytelling, and more. The program runs Monday – Friday from 9 a.m. – 12 p.m., and space are still available for all weeks (June 25 – Aug 10.) Other morning programs include: digital photography, ceramics, and more.

The Rye Arts Center will again offer summer programs for children.
Photo courtesy/Leslye Smith

In addition to morning programs, the Rye Arts Center also offers an array of afternoon programming. Group classes in beginning piano and guitar are available, as well as private/semi-private lessons in various instruments. Other workshops include those in songwriting, voice performance and dance. Additional afternoon programs include: Manga/cartooning, ceramics, drawing, painting, photography, watercolor, Garageband, writing, and analog/digital photography. Students staying for morning and afternoon programs are invited to stay for a supervised lunch from 12 p.m. – 12:30 p.m.

The Rye Arts Center Musical Theatre Workshop, directed by Michael Awusie, will be in full swing starting mid-August, and feature an adaptation of Disney's "Aladdin." This Monday-Friday, full day program (9 p.m. – 4 p.m.) is open to all young thespians ages 8-12 for the weeks of Aug. 13, 20 and 27. (Submitted)